

Kaci Messeder is an intern with Detroit Disability Power and is currently studying to earn her Master of Social Work degree from the University of Michigan School of Social Work, specializing in Community Change.

Kaci earned her Bachelor of Social Work from Central Michigan University in 2019. She has worked with MidMichigan Home Care as a Hospice social worker, as an intern with the National Association of Social Workers-Michigan Chapter, as a volunteer for Mid Michigan Community Action Agency in Early Head Start, and as the founding President of CMU's chapter of Refugee Outreach Collective.

Kaci loves learning, forming deep connections, seeking and creating opportunities for critical consciousness raising, and building platforms for fostering relationships across difference.
